

Caring for your

Self Retaining Retractor

Check teeth of the retractor are not burred and align correctly when closed

Check ratchet/cam rack is not damaged, teeth are intact and meshes correctly

Check ratchet is articulated with the instrument shank, which can easily incur damage or corrosion

Check the screw which holds the retractor together for rust and damage. If loose, the retractor could fail

Check bows are intact