

Caring for your Scissors

Check blades of Mayo, Metzenbaum and McIndoe scissors are smooth and not damaged

Look for damage or rust along the blades

Check for cracks or damage around the screw areas

Ensure scissors have a smooth action

Check the scissors cut correctly using a test material recommended by your manufacturer

Some scissors may appear to be looser but set is correct depending on scissor type; so check with manufacturer if unsure